

Going in Crop Circles - SOLUTION

We managed to dig up some records of these strange patterns marked in the Common. It's definitely aliens, but they've honestly done a pretty messy job. We got digging and managed to unearth something unique from a few of the regions, but it seems we missed a few that are particularly vibrant. Can you help identify them?

The puzzle represents a complex Venn diagram. Each circle represents some property shared by the words within it. Placing the ? words with educated guesses help you narrow down what property each circle represents
